

Programs and Audience Engagement Support

MOV is recruiting dynamic volunteers to expand and deepen the reach of its Programs and Audience Engagement department. If you like our Vision and want to be part of building community awareness of and engagement in MOV activities and initiatives, this is for you.

YOU ARE:

- Curious, passionate, and dedicated to thinking and talking about Vancouver
- Comfortable learning about all things MOV and talking about MOV with the public
- Willing to commit approx. 6-8 hours a month for a minimum of 6 months
- Interested in civic issues, design, local history, politics, culture, diversity, technology and sustainability.
- Comfortable engaging with peers and strangers in both traditional and non-traditional activities
- Thoughtful, respectful, and always interested in new ideas
- Able to work effectively without direct supervision
- Good at working within a collaborative environment
- Willing to chip in an help with whatever needs doing

YOU WILL BE:

- Engaging the MOV community and public with activities relating to either/both exhibition-related programs and contemporary issues-related programs. For example:
 - Interactive Adult Workshops (i.e. dance workshops for Bhangra.me)
 - Lecture Series (i.e. Architectural Speaker Series)
 - Community Storytelling Events (i.e. Rain City Chronicles, KENTalks)
 - Off-site activities (i.e. topical walking/cycling tours)
- Contributing to MOV online engagement by:
 - sharing guest content and publishing summaries/interviews relating to MOV programs and exhibits
 - Sharing with our members, visitors, and local community, all things MOV

- Extending your Eyes and Ears for:
 - Organizations and community groups with similar goals and vision
 - Opportunities to share MOV's mandate with schools, artists
 - Ways to highlight MOV's role in Vancouver's progressive change, dialogue, and creative thinking sphere.
- Ensuring that upcoming exhibits and special events at MOV are shared across diverse networks, through online (i.e. Facebook, Twitter) and in-person channels (social meetups, networking events, other cross-promotional venues!).

WHAT'S IN IT FOR YOU?

- Great experience working in a dynamic and progressive Museum
- The chance to support & promote MOV's Vision
- The chance to be a part of some of Vancouver's most popular events
- Invitations to MOV exhibition opening parties
- Free access to MOV Galleries
- Access to MOV special events & public programs (free or member price)

WHO WILL YOU WORK WITH?

MOV's Curator of Engagement and Dialogue, Hanna Cho, will direct and supervise volunteers supporting programs and audience engagement.

HOW DO I APPLY?

Attend an MOV Volunteer Info Session. Submit an application. Provide references who can speak to your skills relating to the position. We will want to know that you are reliable and punctual. If selected for an interview you will be required to demonstrate your willingness and ability to do this volunteer work. If selected to volunteer, you will be invited to a MOV Orientation Session for new volunteers.

OUR VISION:

To hold a mirror to the city and lead provocative conversations about its past, present and future.
